Entrepreneur, granite exports to more than twenty countries · Past State President, Karnataka Panchamasali Association · President, Karnataka State Consumer Organization

Born in 1957 at Naregal, and in business since 1984, when he and his elder brother started a granite firm that now exports to more than twenty countries. What he brings here is less a professional qualification than a long record of organising people and running large member bodies: a statewide youth club programme in 1982; founder of the North Karnataka Development Association in 1999; State President of the Karnataka Panchamasali Association from 2009 to 2016, over which he ran more than 825 leadership and training camps; State Secretary of the BSS Seva Samaj in 2012; and President of the Karnataka State Consumer Organization since 2022. Consumer protection and the running of a large membership organisation are both close to what an owners' association actually does.
